01. Object of the code of ethics and conduct

This Code of Ethics and Conduct (hereinafter the "Code") sets out the principles and values that should guide the conduct of all Prosegur Cash professionals¹. It derives from the Code of Ethics and Conduct of Prosegur Compañía de Seguridad, S.A., parent company of Prosegur Group, to which Prosegur Cash pertains. It therefore reflects the same behavioural principles.

In particular, it reflects our commitment to act in accordance with these principles and values every day in our dealings with all stakeholders affected by our activities: employees, shareholders and investors, customers and users, suppliers and associates, authorities, public administrations and regulatory bodies, competitors and the civilian society in which we operate.

The Code is an internal standard that defines our corporate culture, our purpose, our values and our leadership model, and sets clear guidelines for the conduct of all professionals subject to its application.

It should be noted that, although this Code does not regulate all the hypotheses or situations that may arise in our day-to-day business, the principles and values set out in it should guide and direct all our actions in matters of social order and corporate responsibility, always guided by our commitment to ethics, integrity and strict compliance with the law.

01. Object of the code of ethics and conduct

All Prosegur Cash professionals are required to know and comply with this Code and to collaborate to facilitate its implementation, under the principle of "zero tolerance" to any type of illegal or unethical behaviour, which is specified in the duty to report any possible breach of which we are aware.

Lastly, the Code constitutes the core basis of Prosegur Cash's sustainability and corporate governance policies, and is overseen by Prosegur Cash's Board of Directors and management bodies, through the Compliance Department.

The Code will be regularly reviewed and updated. To this end, it will take into account the suggestions and proposals made by professionals and the commitments made by Prosegur Cash in terms of sustainability and good governance.

1. It refers to "Prosegur Cash S.A." and all the companies directly or indirectly controlled by this company, in all the countries where we are present.

02. Who is bound by it and what its scope of application is

This Code is binding and applies to members of the Board of Directors, senior management and in general, without exception and regardless of their position, responsibility, occupation or geographical location, to all Prosegur Cash employees.

The Code is, therefore, unique for the whole of Prosegur Cash and is applicable to all business and activities carried out in all countries in which Prosegur Cash is present.

The persons subject to the Code referred to above (hereinafter the "Subject Persons") have the duty to know and comply with it,

Obligation of executives and managers

Executives and managers play a vital role in developing a culture of compliance with the law and respect for Prosegur Cash's principles and values.

Due to their position, they have the obligation, in addition to all those contained in this document, to promote ethical conduct and compliance with the law among Prosegur Cash professionals, leading by example.

Executives and managers shall take the necessary measures to prevent, detect and respond to issues related to compliance with the Code.

notwithstanding the special duties incumbent upon those persons who are subject to other codes or specific duties inherent to the position or activity they hold.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, the application of the Code shall in no case entail a breach of the applicable legal provisions. In such circumstances, the content of the Code shall be interpreted in accordance with the provisions of the aforementioned legal provisions, which shall prevail.

03. Acceptance, compliance and communication

All Subject Persons accept the rules contained in the Code and, in particular, the ethical principles and rules of conduct contained therein, and undertake to comply with it and to ensure compliance with it.

We have no excuse for improper conduct due to ignorance of this Code or when acting upon the orders of a superior. Accordingly, we know that whoever, by action or omission, breaches the Code shall be subject to the relevant disciplinary measures in accordance with prevailing labour standards and internal policies and procedures.

If any Prosegur Cash professional has any questions about the interpretation or application of the Code, they can raise it with their immediate hierarchical superior. They can also go to the Human Resources Department or the Compliance Officer² in charge of ensuring the regulations are properly observed.

By way of exception to the foregoing, the Board of Directors shall be responsible, following a report from the Sustainability, Corporate Governance, Appointments and Remuneration Committee, for resolving any doubts about its application raised by directors and deciding how to handle any complaint affecting a member of the Board of Directors. It may entrust the investigation to a third party outside Prosegur Cash, as a guarantee of independence, when deemed appropriate.

This document is communicated through the Human Resources Department, which is also responsible for providing to all employees the training required to ensure familiarity with it. A copy is permanently available on the intranet and at the Prosegur Cash website, www.prosegurcash.com.

Thus, all Subject Persons must carry out their professional activity in accordance with the provisions of this Code, which must always be present when performing their professional duties, and with any other internal policies and rules established in Prosegur Cash to prevent any unlawful and/or criminal activity that contravenes the principles and values of Prosegur Cash.

Following on from this, in order to prevent or, where appropriate, detect any irregular conduct that may occur at any of Prosegur Cash's hierarchical levels, all Subject Persons must inform, report and collaborate in the investigation of possible risks or breaches of the Code, as well as of any other internal regulations, and/or of any action that could be considered illegal or criminal of which we are aware or suspect.

For this reason, if we detect any conduct that could be considered inappropriate, we take the necessary precautions and steps to study the facts of the case by opening an enquiry process to be conducted by a team of impartial experts, who will present their findings and propose any corrective measures that may need to be taken.

It should be borne in mind that any breach of the Code, of any other internal rules or policies and/or legal or conventional rules in the performance of our professional duties may be considered a breach of employment law that may be subject to a penalty, in accordance with the applicable regulations.
